OVERVIEW

Company Background

Cloudlex Software Solution is a specialized software company that focuses on providing efficient operational management solutions for buildings, hotels, apartelles, and condominiums. Their client portfolio includes prominent establishments such as Myplace Residence Hall, Kingscourt 1 & Kingscourt 2, Philippine Columbian Association, Grandview Tower, Prospect, AKIC, SDA, Lasalle Taft Saint Benilde School, Benook Fried Chicken and Pancit, and Paco Marketing.

Practicum Engagement

My supervisor, Sir Lex Tansiongco, conducts meetings every Monday from 7 PM to 9 PM. These meetings are utilized for assigning tasks and presenting updates on ongoing assignments. In the second week, Sir Lex organized us into two groups. My groupmates and I help each other whenever needed.

The first task assigned to us interns was to individually learn and develop a website using MongoDB, Express, React, and Node.js (MERN). Sir Lex provided training materials for us to follow. By the fourth week, our groups were assigned to create a web application for senior citizens, featuring both client-side and admin-side components.

During the development phase, I primarily worked on the admin side of the application. In the last weeks, I shifted my focus to the customer side, where I worked on the profile view page and front-end enhancements.

I completed a total of 340 hours over 42.5 days at Cloudlex Software Solution.

OUTPUTS

MERN project practice

The first three weeks was dedicated for practicing MERN – MongoDB, Express.js, React.js, and Node.js. Training materials were provided to follow. The following two pictures are the output after following the video tutorials.

Web App Admin Side

My work on the Admin side of the web application was centered around managing the Locations table, which includes Regions, Provinces, and Cities. For the Regions and Provinces table pages, I focused primarily on frontend development.

The screenshot shows a dark-themed web application interface. At the top left is a navigation bar with three horizontal bars and the text "CRIV". Below it is a "Home" button. A welcome message "Welcome, admin1!" is displayed. The main content area has a title "Regions Table Preview". Below the title is a table with two columns: "Region Code" and "Region Name". The table lists eight regions: Ilocos Region, Cagayan Valley, Central Luzon, Calabarzon, Bicol Region, Western Visayas, Central Visayas, and Eastern Visayas. The table includes sorting icons for both columns and a search bar at the top right.

II	Cagayan Valley
III	Central Luzon
IV-A	Calabarzon
V	Bicol Region
VI	Western Visayas

VIII	Eastern Visayas

In addition to the frontend work, I prepared the backend for the Cities table page. This involved developing controllers, models, and routes to handle CRUD operations for city data, ensuring efficient data management and integration with the database. On the frontend, I designed the Cities table page to align with the consistent look and feel of the Regions and Provinces pages.

The screenshot shows a dark-themed user interface for managing cities. At the top left is a navigation icon (three horizontal lines) and the text 'CRIV'. Below it is a large title 'Cities'. Underneath the title are two dropdown menus: 'Select Region' with 'All Regions' selected, and 'Select Province' with 'All Provinces' selected. A blue button labeled 'CREATE NEW CITY' is located at the top left of the main content area. To the right of the table are several small icons: a magnifying glass, a double arrow, a list icon, a three-line icon, and a refresh/circular arrow icon. The main content is a table with the following data:

Actions	Region	Province	ID	Name	Date Modified

Web App Customer Side

On the customer side of the web application, my work primarily involved developing and refining the Profile page and the Products page. For the Profile page, I designed and implemented a comprehensive user interface that allows customers to view and manage their personal information, benefits, allowances, and discounts. I focused on creating a clean and organized layout, separating the page into distinct sections for personal information and other relevant details. This included adjusting the UI for responsiveness to ensure a seamless experience across various devices and orientations.

In addition to the Profile page, I set up the Products page, where customers can view a list of products with their names, prices, and descriptions. I integrated this page with the backend to pull product data from the database, ensuring that the displayed information was accurate and up-to-date. I also worked on enhancing the UI of the homepage and header, adding animations and consolidating navigation elements for a more intuitive user experience.

Synthesis

Throughout my practicum, I gained valuable insights into web development practices and tools. I enhanced my skills in JavaScript and TypeScript and became more proficient with modern frameworks and libraries such as React, Material-UI, and Tailwind CSS. I learned about backend management, including the creation and handling of API endpoints and integrating various components to ensure efficient data management. This experience provided me with a deeper understanding of both frontend and backend development, including concepts such as state management, middleware, and UI/UX design.

I gained practical experience in building and deploying web applications, which served as a solid foundation for understanding emerging technologies and industry practices. Although the work setting was primarily remote, which limited face-to-face interactions, the experience significantly contributed to my growth as a web developer, offering a comprehensive perspective on the development process and the challenges associated with it. I am grateful to Cloudlex Software Solution for providing me with this invaluable experience. Their guidance and the opportunities they provided have greatly contributed to my development as a web developer.
